

HATHAWAY/ENDOWMENTS

Fourth, I support creation of an endowment for higher education, especially the effort towards endowed chairs. At its current stage of development, I recommend funds be set aside for that purpose. However, release of any funds should be subject to further legislative action next year. This would allow time for refinement of the concept, further defining the expectations and accountability needed to justify such a program.